Volunteer Park Conservatory – Your Tropical Urban Oasis

Fashioned after London's Crystal Palace, the Conservatory stands as the focal point at north end of Olmsted-designed Volunteer Park. This historic building is one of only three Victorian-style glass houses on the west coast. It consists of five houses: the Palm House, Seasonal House, Fern House, Cactus & Succulent House and the Bromeliad House. As its designers had envisioned in 1912, the Conservatory is a hub of educational activity for the community as well as an extremely popular tourist destination.

The Friends of the Conservatory: Preserving the Past – Conserving for the Future

Become a Member of the Friends of the Conservatory and help support the horticultural and educational goals of the Conservatory. As a member of the Friends, you will receive a semi-annual newsletter with horticulture information and activities of the organization including plant sales, workshops, tours and lectures. Members also receive a 10% discount in the FOC Gift Shop & plant sales as well as discounts at events.

Most important, as a member of the Friends you can play a key role in the future of our unique Conservatory in Volunteer Park, ensuring its legacy.

The Friends invite you to support this vital organization devoted to education, the environment and the public enjoyment of plants by joining today.
